

Platinum Awarded Prime Contract for General Services Administration (GSA), Region 6, Program Support Services

March 17, 2023 (Catonsville, MD) -

Platinum Business Services, LLC (Platinum), a growing provider of program management and acquisition support services to the Federal Government and the General Services Administration, announced today the award of a $600 thousand multi-year Program Support Services contract for the Federal Acquisition Service (FAS), Office of Customer and Stakeholder Engagement (CASE). This prime contract award will directly support CASE with timekeeping, travel arrangements, outreach, customer relations, and event planning. FAS serves the nation by delivering the best products and services across all areas of government. CASE supports FAS by helping GSA understand customer requirements and assisting agencies with meeting acquisition needs.

"Platinum looks forward to partnering with CASE to provide needed program support," said Jody Venkatesan, Platinum's President & CEO. "This contract represents a prime contract award of increasing value. It is an expansion in our support of GSA Region 6, the "Heartland" Region. Platinum has had a positive and expanding working relationship with GSA for many years, and this further represents our commitment to their mission at the highest levels. This award is a major step forward in our company's ability to directly improve GSA's ability to serve customers and agencies. We are proud to bring such a high level of program support to CASE. We look forward to supporting GSA and meeting its mission to serve our nation."
